Chantelle Lefebvre

Areas of Expertise: Family law lawyer in the Lloydminster area for the last 12 years.

Introduction: I was raised in nearby St. Paul, AB on an acreage and grew up getting groceries and fuel from the local Co-op. After completing my education, I moved to Lloydminster where my husband is from and have remained here since that time (2009). We live on an acreage with our 2 children and dogs. Shopping at the Co-op (and being part of the board) allows me to return to my roots while also being actively involved in the community.

Career History: I have worked as a lawyer for 12 years. I am a member of both the Law Societies of Alberta and Saskatchewan. I have practiced family law over that entire period. I have been running my own firm for nearly a year, and prior to that, practiced in a law-firm setting as an associate and then as a partner.

Special Accreditations: I am currently a District Governor for the Saskatchewan Trial Lawyers Association. I have held this position for 6 years and am actively involved in committees related to access to justice.

I was previously on the Lloydminster & District Board of Directors from 2016 – 2019. In my final year on the board, I served as the Member-at-Large. I left the board for a period of time because of personal commitments, but am excited at the prospect of returning to the board.

I am fluent in French.

Areas of Expertise:

My education and experience span a wide range of environmental, agricultural, and business-related areas including project management, regulatory and safety compliance, environmental stewardship, crop management, soil health, sustainable farm management practices, property management, relationship building and business ownership.

Introduction: I am originally from Regina, went to school in Saskatoon and move to Lloydminster along with my wife in 1995. We immediately became coop members, opened a business, and had our first child.

Since then we have been actively involved in the community through our work and while raising our two children. Our family has been involved with scouting, 4H, the Lakeland music program, school band and as members of the Grace United Church. In my spare time, I love to grow flowers and greenhouse vegetables and restore my 1949 Chevy truck.

Serving on the board would allow me to actively contribute to the growth and success of the cooperative, which plays a crucial role in the local community. I also hope that my agriculture background could be used to advocate for sustainable and efficient agricultural practices within the community. Serving on the board also offers me an opportunity for continued professional development, networking and to be engaged with the community and connect with other professionals in the cooperative's sphere.

Interesting fact: My wife's family has been involved with the Lloydminster Co-op for 3 generations and she served on the board shortly after our move here.

Career History: My educational background in Agriculture and Environmental Studies paved the way for diverse roles throughout my career. After school, I began by owning and operating a commercial greenhouse. Following the sale of the greenhouse operation, I transitioned to a position at Cargill, where I served as an agronomist, providing advice to farmers on the implementation of tailored farm management solutions.

Subsequently, I entered the oil and gas sector, taking on the roles of an environmental scientist and project manager. In this capacity, I oversaw soil reclamation efforts at both small and large-scale sites, emphasizing my commitment to sustainable practices within the industry. A subsequent two-year tenure as the Garden Center Manager at Lloydminster Home Hardware further broadened my experience.

Currently, I co-own Blue Sky Ideas Consulting alongside my wife, balancing this commitment with providing assistance to our aging parents.

Special Accreditations: I hold a Master's degree in Soil Science from the University of Saskatchewan. As well, professional development training in project management and safety training courses related to my work in the agriculture and oil and gas sectors.
